Ask about AMH

We accept referrals from:

Mental Health Professionals
DEL Pathway Personal Advisers
Condition Management Practitioners

You and your referral agent will be invited to visit AMH and you will have the opportunity to see the range of programmes that are available and decide whether AMH will meet your particular needs

Your referral agent will complete a referral form and forward it to the appropriate AMH service

A meeting will be arranged to confirm and expand information detailed on the referral form and to explore your goals and aspirations

Arrangements will be made for you to attend the service

From its inception in 1963, AMH has grown to be one of the largest mental health and learning disability voluntary sector organisations in Northern Ireland. We have an established track record in providing a range of unique high quality services, helping more than 1700 people every year across the region.

AMH New Horizons provides a range of vocational training, personal development and employment support services. Our Employment Officer is available for one to one support and guidance. We can also sign-post you to other Government Training and Employment Programmes.

Have you experienced mental ill health?

Are you currently employed but your health is affecting your ability to do your job, or are you at serious risk of losing your job as a result of your health?

Then the AMH Employment service can help.

Workable NI

Workable (NI) is a flexible programme which supports people with disabilities to access paid employment of 16 hours or more or currently in work, but are at serious risk of losing your job as a result of a disability.

If you have had to deal with stress, anxiety, depression or some other form of mental illness, then with the help and support from the AMH Employment Support Officer, we will encourage your own personal development and independence back to work.

The individually tailored support may include; personal development planning, ongoing support from AMH, relevant training identified to improve your qualifications or skills in the workplace, confidence building training as well as one to one counselling etc.
