

Do you have a mental health condition and would you like support to get back to work?

What IPS can offer:

- A personalised individual service
- Help finding the paid work you want to do
- Support with your CV, job searches, applications and interviews
- Approaching employers with you in mind
- Support managing your health condition to enable you to work
- Ongoing support for as long as you need
- Expert benefit advice so that you know exactly what your full income will be

Who can access the programme?

Any Service User that wishes to work and has an employment specialist in their community team.

"I was beginning to think I was unemployable. Now I have gained a career, not just a job."

"Anyone is capable of work. IPS is a stepping stone for anyone trying to get back to work."
